

September Newsletter

Greetings!

As students prepare to return to school and we anticipate changes in the weather, the rhythm of life at Epiphany shifts as well. Join us this fall as we seek to fulfil the confirmation promise to "live among God's faithful people", caring for one another, studying God's word, and serving our neighbors. Keep an eye on the latest bulletins for the most up to date information!

Fall Scraftin' Event

September 18 (5-11pm)
September 19 (8am-8pm)

Registrations due 9/10

Sign up on the green bulletin board to help provide food, snacks, door prizes, or to help serve a meal.

This event is an important fundraiser for our congregation. Please consider how you can get involved!

Quilt Silent Auction

This fall, two quilts will be auctioned off (silently!) at Epiphany. The proceeds from these quilts will help to purchase a new rocking chair for our nursery/faith formation room. Thank you to the quilters for their work on these projects!
